Site is a building with a glass entrance, has emblem (round with points As- like a star) and guard personnel in grey uniforms. The entrance contains a display of photographs of scientific and technical great advancements in Satellite photography. The building is more than one level as there is a center staircase that branches off in two directions.

dark closed in feeling as a fresh-like a environment.

There is something above the structure that projected descending down the outside of the building. It gives me a feeling of being closed in and is dark. As I moved horizontally from this point, there is a perception of the open air.
At approximately the center (AOE) like a ventilation shaft.
